Headline: Briefs: Glacier Hills Names Laura Raney, Director of Nursing

Ann Arbor, MI—Ray Rabidoux, President and CEO of Glacier Hills, Inc. announced the promotion of Laura A. Raney to Director of Nursing. A Clinical Systems Manager at Glacier Hills since October 2009, Ms. Raney will manage nursing activities for the 161-bed Care and Rehabilitation Center at Glacier Hills Senior Living Community. Her healthcare career includes positions in direct care, systems management, and clinical reimbursement. As a Registered Nurse, she provided care in the hospital setting, as well as long-term care facilities in Adrian (MI) and in Ohio. Glacier Hills recognizes Ms. Raney’s substantive RN experience, pursuit of excellence in person-centered care, and a personal commitment to exceptional service. A graduate in Nursing from University of Toledo (OH), Ms. Raney has been a licensed Registered Nurse in Michigan and Ohio since 1995.

Glacier Hills, Inc. is a forward-thinking non-profit, non-denominational organization serving Washtenaw County and Southeast Michigan area since 1973. Governed by a community board of directors, it continuously improves upon quality of life for older adults by providing the community bridge care between acute care in a hospital setting and home, memory care, and long-term skilled nursing care. In addition, it offers Independent and Assisted Living options in a life care community on a 34-acre campus; as well as home health care for those adults aging in place in Washtenaw and portions of Wayne and Livingston counties through Glacier Hills Home Care. For more information on the Glacier Hills organization, contact Gerie Greenspan at (734) 929-6754 or visit www.glacierhills.org.
