Headline: Glacier Hills Welcomes New Board Members

ANN ARBOR, MI – Glacier Hills' President & CEO Ray Rabidoux has announced election of the following individuals to its Boards:

Elected to the Glacier Hills, Inc. Board of Directors:

Bill Stapleton, J.D., has been an attorney with Hooper, Hathaway, Price, Beuche & Wallace (Ann Arbor) since 1985. He received his law degree from the University of Michigan (1985); he has an undergraduate degree from University of Notre Dame (1981). Bill's practice is focused on commercial litigation, with emphasis on environmental law and insurance coverage. He is a member of the Washtenaw County and American Bar Associations, as well as the State Bar (Michigan).

Elected to the Glacier Hills Foundation Board of Trustees:

John Balbach has served as Director of Regional Advancement Programs for University of Michigan's College of Engineering for 3 years. His degrees from the University of Michigan include a BS (Biopsychology) and a Master's Degree in Public Policy from the Ford School of Public Policy. After a period on Vice President Cheney's staff, he formed Strategic National Consulting, a consulting firm with renowned clients in the national and statewide political arenas. John is a Rotarian and part of the AAACF Next Generation Philanthropists Club. His previous service record includes the Ann Arbor Arts Center board and as an Army Airborne Ranger and Human Intelligence Officer.

Jean Crump is a resident representative of Glacier Hills. She served as Secretary to The Manor Association for several years, and she enjoys widespread respect within the Community. In the past, she has organized recycling efforts at Glacier Hills.

Joan Dickson is a resident representative and active volunteer of Glacier Hills. Her involvement spans the Library's outreach to patients in the Care & Rehabilitation Center (CRC). Her Committee positions on campus include The Meadows Association's Executive Board, representative to the Glacier Hills, Inc. Board, and head of the former Landscape Committee. In addition, she is a past President of her P.E.O. chapter.

Founded in 1973 in Ann Arbor, Michigan, Glacier Hills is a non-profit, non-sectarian organization serving older adults of the Washtenaw County and greater southeast Michigan through a continuing care retirement community, skilled nursing care & rehabilitation, Glacier Hills Home Care, and the Glacier Hills Foundation.
